CINCINNATI, THURSDAY, MAY 5.

W. W. Pike, Esq., has purchased the Kentucky State Fiag, published at Paris, Bourbon County, Kentucky, and will at once occupy the editorial chair of that journal.

The first vessel that broke through the ice this season, in Lake Pepin, was the Key West, for which piece of good luck she is exempt from the payment of wharfage at St. Paul, during the entire season, which will be a saving to her owners of some $800. Among those talked of as likely to succeed the late Bishop Donne, are the Rev. Dr. Mahan, Dr. Odenheim, of Philadelphia; Bishop Southgate and the Rev. Samuel A. Clark, Rector of St John's, Elizabeth, New

We are told by the Maysville (Ky.) Eagle, that the negro boy Carey, who murdered his master, Mr. Frank Hampton, near Orangeburg, on Monday last, was captured in the same neighborhood on Friday evening, by Mr. M. Davis, assisted by two of his negroes. The murderer was lodged in Maysville jail.

The following from the Salt Lake City Valley Tau can not, we apprehend, be true of Gov. Cumming: He has joined himself heart and hand with Brigham Young and his bishops, to endeavor, even by force, perhaps, to prevent the investigation of the dreadful, inhuman butcheries by the Mormon Church.

According to one of the N. Y. Tribune's Washington correspondents, the Administra-tion has determined to relieve itself from the present Utah embarrassment, and postpone the solution of the horror problem yet a little longer by removing Judge Cradlebaugh, who is said to have acted even worse than has heretofore been reported.

Horace Greelev is to start from New York on the 10th inst., on a Western tour. He intends going through Kansas and the alleged Gold Regions at the Eastern base of the Rocky Mountains, thence through Utah and the Great Basin to California, returning across the continent or by the Isthmus, as circum-stances shall dictate. He expects to return ometime in September next.

The Winona Republican, of the 27th ult., says that the steamer Eolian was sunk in Lake Pepin on Friday morning, by the closing n of the ice around her, when nearly oppo site Lake City. Four deck-passengers were drowned. They were, a man named Welch, with his wife and child, from Canada, and John Felch, from Eric County, New York. All other persons on board escaped.

The Hon, W. E. Wheeler, of Beloit, Wis. while on a shooting excursion, last Thurs-day, came near losing his life. When taking this gun from the buggy, with the muzzle toward him, the triggers caught on the wheel, discharging the contents of both barrels into his right side. His wounds, though ry dangerous, it is hoped, will not prove fatal.

The Bonapartes, says Harriet Martineau, re not men of character, of political wisdom, of patriotic temper, of philosophical sagnetty They are low in aim, vulgar in quality of intelect, and consequently in manners, and by no prepossessions inclined to rescue Italy for the advantage of the Italians. They are regarded as selfish adventurers, rather than as emancipators of pations. Two sons of the late Bishop Doane-the one in Episcopal Minister, the other a Catholic Priest-met at the grave of their departed father, and both shed tears of sincere sorrow they witnessed the lowering of his remains into their final resting-place. Such a scene as this, says a cotemporary, is seldom witnessed— two brothers meeting at the grave of a beloved father, who professed religious opinions of an entirely opposite nature to each other.

The Toledo Blade says that the new ap-Henry N. Walker, has not occupied a very decided position as between the two factions of the party, but has been supposed to be savorable to the Douglas interest. If so, his appointment may be the first advance on the part of the Administration toward the reconciliation which Mr. Douglas and his sup-porters are anxious to bring about.

The Moline Independent tells the following story: Last fall the wife of an old Scotch farmer (an inhabitant of Moline), fell heir to $100,000. She started for the old country, and while on her way, a brother died, leaving white on her way, a brother died, leaving her $50,000 more. Soon after her arrival home her father died, leaving her heir to a still larger sum. Finally, her old husband sold out and set off for the land of his birth. Now all this omes, says an exchange, from marrying the right kind of woman.

Thomas Lett, of La Salle County, Illinois, and brother of the famous Ben. Lett, has addressed a pamphlet to the people of New York, windicating the name of his brother from the charges of burning the steamboat Great Britain, blowing up Brock's monument, and various outrages connected with the Canadian rebellion, and refuting the statements of the newspapers that his family were rebels, his father hung, etc. He furnishes a history of his family from the time of William III. Ben. it will be remembered, died in Decemher last, in Milwaukee, from the effects of poion administered to him by persons unknown. Cleve. Democrat.

SINGULAL AFFAIR .- On Thursday afternoon last, a man and his wife, named Barlow, arrived at Hudson from New York city. In the after-noon, they started on foot on the track of the Hudson and Boston Railroad. As a train ap-proached, the engineer observed them sitting pon the track, and blew the usual signal of danger, which was unnoticed. As the train approached nearer, however, the man arose quietly and stepped from the track, leaving the woman still sitting there. The next instant the train had passed over the legs of the un-fortunate woman, nearly severing the limbs from the body. She died in great agony at seven o'clock the same evening. It was, no doubt, the intention of both of them to commit suicide, but the courage of the man failing him at the last moment, he stepped off the track just in time to save his life.

RECOVERED AND ABANDONED .- The Council Bluffs Eagle says: A man from the Eastern portion of this State, arrived in our city for portion of this State, strived in our city for the purpose of reclaiming a wife who had been taken through mistake by a neighbor, while packing up his goods for Cherry Creek. The man in pursuit of his wife came on by stage. At Lewis the emigrant for the new El Dorado left his wagon in charge of a friend, and took the stage for this city. It was night when the couple got into the stage. Their surprise can be better imagined than described, when they found at the dawn of day the diswhen they found at the dawn of day the dis-consolate husband in search of his lost wife, sitting upon the seat in front of them. The guilty parties were arrested, when the woman admitted that she was the wife of the man in pursuit; but denied that the baby, about six months old, which she had in her arms, was his. Upon this information the bushand was willing that "Gabriel should blow his horn," and left the room, whereupon the parties were and left the room, whereupon the parties were discharged, and Old Pottawattamie will have

Miss Dobbs says the sweetest line she over read was her Simon's name, written in molasses on her front step.

Happiness, it has been wisely observed, is the proportion of the number of things which we love, and the number of things that love us. A lady being asked what she thought of the dectrine of total depravity, said she thought it a "very good dectrine if people would only live up to it."

On his death-bed, a distinguished humorist requested that no one might be invited to his funeral, "because," sighed the dying wag, "it is a civility I can never repay."

A pedagogue was about to flog a pupil for having said he was a fool, when the boy cried out, "Oh, don't! don't! I won't call you so any more. I'll never say what I think again in all the days of my life!" Suicide is becoming very prevalent in my neighboring town. Well, really, sir, I don't know of any city where it could prevail to better advantage to the world at large. "Little boy, can I go through this gate to the river?" politely inquired a fashionably dressed lady. "P'raps so—a load of hay went through this morning," was the hurried reply. A Dutchman being advised to rub his limbs well with brandy for rheumatism, said he had heard of the remedy, but added: "I dosh petter as that; I drink de prandy, and then I rubs my leg mit to pottle."

At a free black settlement, in Africa, a police ordinance was lately issued, by which it is forbidden that any person should publicly wor-ship alligators, thunder or other reptiles, or they will be subjected to a penalty not exceeding ten shillings.

A very polite young man wishing to ask a young lady if he might speak to her a few moments, wanted to know "if he could roll the wheel of conversation around the axhe-tree of the property of her understanding for a moment." The poo

Walter Scott declared that these four lines by Burns were worth a thousand romances: Had we never lov'd sae kindly— Had we never lov'd sae blindly— Never met—or never parted— We had ne'er been broken-hearted.

A gentleman at Springfield has invented an apparatus, upon which he has the caveat, which is designed as a certain remedy for snoring. It fastens upon the mouth a gutta-percha tube to the tympanum of the ear. Whonever the snorer snores, he himself receives the first impression, and if he be a ensible man or woman-quits.

CATCHING COLD.—Some people take cold easily. Howard Paul, in his amusing "Patchork," tells of a delicate young man who kissed a lady's "snowy brow," and was laid up with influenza a week in consequence.

Go MARRY .- The most beautiful flowers are those which are double; such as double pinks, double roses, and double dahlias. What an argument is this against the chilling deformity of single blessedness! "Go marry!" is writ-ten on every thing beautiful that the eye rests upon, beginning with the birds of paradis-and ending with apple-blossoms.

River Intelligence.

The Weather yesterday was warm and pleasant with the usual amount of dust on the Wharf. The River continues to recede rapidly opposite this port, with plenty of water for the largest class of steamers. Business on the Levee was dull. , from Marietta, came in with a paying trip. The spartures include the A. W. Quarrier, for Kanawha, with a good cargo. The Kate French left for Nash ville with a good trip, including 20,000 feet of lumber and 36 horses. The Parkersburg left for Parkersbur with a good cargo. The Montgomery, from Louis ville, arrived at New Orleans yesterday. The Mari ner, Bochester, Reliance, Belle Creole, Anglo Saxon, and R. B. Hamilton, are due here from below, and will doubtless be found in port this morning. GLEANINGS FROM OUR EXCHANGES. Leutsville,-We condense the following from the ourier of yesterds. :

Courier of yesterds.:

As the river recedes, the Third street Bridge will require the attention of the proper authorities, as it bears the appearance of being in a wretchedly dilapidated condition. The rising waters have bursted up the foot ways, and otherwise damaging it.

Pilots direct from Arkansas River report three feet from Fort Smith to Little Rock, and from four to five feet in the lower part of the river—back water from the Mississippi. The Lady Walton is plying as a regular packet between Napoloon and Little Rock, in place of the S. H. Tucker, the latter having taken the place of the S. H. Tucker, the latter having taken the place of the sunken Arkansas in the Adams Mail Line. The Hickman was aground at Bentley's Bar, twenty miles above Little Rock.

We learn from the officers of the Southerner, which arrived from Memphis, vesterday, that boats going below find great difficulty in delivering way freight, and are refusing it in many instances, as it is almost impossible to put it out on account of the overflow.

At Caseyville, Monday, the river was rising at the

At Caseyville, Monday, the river was rising at the rate of half an inch per hour, and the larger portion of the town overflowed.

At Shawneetown the river was rising rapidly, and he town overflowed, with the exception of a narrow trip next to the river.

The rise from the Wabash had about expended itself. At Uniontown the citizens anticipated an overflow.

EVANSVILLE.—The Journal of Wednesday says:

The business on the landing was much brisker than suat, several hoats having arrived from Green River nd the Wabash with good trips. The river continues to rise slowly. MEMPHIS-The Memphis Appeal has the following reference to a storm in that region :

We learn from Captain Booker, of the Rounn, which boat arrived from Little Red River yesterday, that one of the severest storms passed over that region of country on Monday night ever known in that latitude. The largest timber was uprooted, and great damage was done to plantation improvements. Mr. James Macawiey's mill, at Prospect Bluff, was literally form to pieces, and the roof and upper works were blown away three hundred yards into the woods.

St. Louis—The Misson; December 1. St. Louis.-The Missouri Democrat of Tuesday

Rain began to fall very heavily early yesterday morning, and continued falling during the entire forenoon. As a matter of course, skippers kept their goods in store, tarpauline thrown over the freight on the wharf, and business was at a sund-still. From the profuseness of the rains, a rise is expected hero. The Missouri is rising from some point below St. Joseph, and it is supposed that rain has fallen on a large expanse of country. We hear that Des Moines River has been failing rapidly, and the Mississippi is falling below Keokuk. Yesterday it fell an inch or two hers. milling below Rookuk. Yesterday it fell an inch or two here.
Mr. Archie Woods, until lately, elerk of the Ed. Walsh, has bought Mr. Wm. H. Scudders' interest of one-eighth, in the fine railroad line packet New Falls City, and also taken his place in the office. Mr. Scudder has left the river, much to the regret of a host of friends, and enters upon the less hazardous life of a farmer. He will have many good wishes while cultivating hissplendid farm in Marion County, in this State.
